

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

When I get home at night, I need to rest. I do not enjoy talking needlessly on the phone. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has made this possible.

This law has been extremely valuable to me and to others that I know.